Location

The property forms part of a range of industrial buildings at Whitehouse Farm (opposite the Landford Poacher pub) which is situated just off the A36 at the junction with the B3079 Lyndhurst Road and which connects the village of Landford (under 1 mile) and Bramshaw further to the south. J2 of the M27 can be accessed approx 5.6 miles to the southeast at Ower whilst Salisbury lies just 10 miles to the north west.

Description

The premises comprise a former agriculture building of portal frame construction with concrete floor. The building has been comprehensively renovated and upgraded to include profile metal cladding to the elevations above the existing block work walls and a new composite corrugated roof covering incorporating translucent panels. New roller shutter loading doors have been fitted at various intervals as well as a pedestrian doors. The building has a height of 3.47 m to the eaves and 6.4 m to the ridge. The premises are available either as a whole or on a 50/50 basis. There is welfare block close by providing ladies and gents WCs and there is plenty of on-site parking.

Yard space is also available in two bays bounded by sleepers opposite the northern unit.
